Assistant Professor of Counselor Education School Counseling Program Department of Counselor Education College of Education Portland State University

The Portland State University Department of Counselor Education is seeking an enthusiastic new colleague to join our statewide recognized School Counseling Program! We are seeking to hire a tenure-track faculty member with background and experience in a CACREP-accredited program, who can teach CACREP Common Core and School Counseling specialty courses. We are most interested in a faculty member with a strong professional identity in school counseling. Teaching expertise in School Counseling specialty courses, such as Parents, Families, and Communities in Schools, Counseling Individuals with Diverse Needs, as well as CACREP Core Courses, including Developmental Foundations in Counseling, Career and Lifestyle Planning, Tests and Assessments in Counseling, and Practicum and Internship is being sought. The successful candidate will be expected to maintain an active scholarly agenda, teach approximately nine (9) credits per quarter, and become involved in service to the college and university.

Portland State University, with an enrollment of approximately 30,000 students, serves the Portland metropolitan area, which is a vibrant and growing community with a culturally diverse population of 1.5 million people. Portland State University's motto is "Let knowledge serve the city", which highlights the campus as a national leader in university–community partnerships. PSU's Graduate School of Education prepares teachers, administrators, and counselors for urban, diverse, and other communities. The Counselor Education Department at PSU provides Master's level preparation in the areas of (a) clinical mental health counseling, (b) marital, couple, and family counseling, (c) clinical rehabilitation counseling, and (d) school counseling. The four counseling programs are CACREP and/or CORE accredited. Strengths of the department include collegial faculty, excellence in teaching, and a model, on-campus Practicum Clinic.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Earned doctorate in Counselor Education or equivalent field.
- Experience in teaching CACREP courses.
- Potential for developing a robust scholarly agenda.
- Identification with and preparation in School Counseling.
- Successful completion of a criminal background check.
