

Lecturer Position in Counselor Education
College of Education/ Department of Educational Services and Leadership
10 Month, Full-time Tenure Track Position

Did you ever want....

- to live near a major metropolitan city (Philadelphia) and also be close to the beach?
- be able to drive 10 minutes to be in either an urban, suburban, or rural farm? (Perfect for research as well!)
- have access to other major metropolitan cities within 2-5 hours?

All while working with a phenomenal group of faculty? Then this position is for you!

WE LOOK FORWARD TO MEETING YOU AT ACES!

Description:

Rowan University is a Carnegie-classified Doctoral University (Moderate Research Activity) with approximately 19,000 students. Its main campus is located in Glassboro, N.J., 20 miles southeast of Philadelphia, with additional campuses in Camden and Stratford. The University comprises seven academic colleges and five schools—the William G. Rohrer College of Business; the Henry M. Rowan College of Engineering; the Colleges of Communication and Creative Arts, Education, Humanities and Social Sciences, Performing Arts, and Science and Mathematics; the Cooper Medical School of Rowan University; the Rowan University School of Osteopathic Medicine; the Graduate School of Biomedical Sciences; the School of Health Professions; and the School of Earth and Environment—with an Honors College that spans across disciplines. Rowan is one of two public universities in the country to offer M.D. and D.O. medical degree programs. The institution is also home to the South Jersey Technology Park, which fosters the translation of applied research into commercial products and processes. Rowan has been recognized as one of the top 90 public research universities and the 7th fastest growing research institution in the nation.

The College of Education has over 3,000 undergraduate and graduate students and was recently recognized as having one of the best online graduate programs in the country. The department of Educational Services and Leadership is one of four departments within the College of Education. The department of Educational Services and Leadership houses graduate programs in educational leadership (CPED member), school psychology (NASP approved), and counseling in educational settings (CACREP approved), higher education, and school administration and a post-baccalaureate program in school nursing. The College of Education is fully accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP) and approved by the New Jersey Department of Education.

The department of Educational Services and Leadership is accepting applications for a lecturer position for our MA level program in Counseling in Educational Settings beginning September 1, 2019. We are especially interested in candidates whose research and teaching explicitly addresses issues of equity, access, and social justice as grounded in theoretical frameworks. The department is seeking a creative and innovative faculty member to play an integral role in our MA level School Counseling program, teaching 4 courses per semester.

Qualifications:

This position requires demonstrated scholarly and teaching excellence in counseling in educational settings. Specifically, the department is looking for a faculty member who is dedicated to increasing awareness, sensitivity, and knowledge of practices that will result in equitable educational opportunities for diverse learners. The successful candidate will meet the following qualifications:

Required:

- Earned doctorate in Counselor Education from a CACREP approved program
- Department of Education certification as school counselor (any state)
- Ability to demonstrate currency and fluency in best practices in school counseling
- Ability to teach a variety of courses in the counseling curriculum including supervision of field experiences
- Commitment to interactive and field-based work
- Record of professional and service activities, which include working with P-12 schools
- Ability to establish and maintain effective internal and external relationships in dynamic and collaborative environments
- Clear understanding of the social justice issues that face educational leaders and a commitment to equity and the celebration of diversity in a pluralistic society

Preferred:

- Credentialed as a Nationally Certified Counselor, Licensed Professional Counselor
- Record of excellence in teaching at the graduate level
- Experience in developing and delivering educational programs online
- Substantial practitioner experience in school counseling

General Information: Rowan University's College of Education is committed to building a culturally diverse faculty and especially encourages applications from women and individuals from underrepresented groups in higher education.

Application Deadline: October 31, 2019

Starting Date: September 1, 2020

Submit a letter of application with a statement of teaching interest that matches one or more areas of instruction or program courses listed above, curriculum vitae, graduate transcripts and names and contact information of three references (at least one of which addresses teaching ability).

Here is the direct link: <http://jobs.rowan.edu/cw/en-us/job/493811/lecturer-of-counseling-in-educational-settings>

Rowan University values diversity and is committed to equal opportunity in employment.

All positions are contingent upon budget appropriations.

Search Chair:

Kara P. Ieva, PhD, NCC, NCSC

Associate Professor | Counseling in Educational Settings

Department of Educational Services and Leadership

Rowan University | College of Education

Herman D. James Hall Room 3024 | 856.256.4305 | ieva@rowan.edu