

UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI-ST. LOUIS
College of Education
Assistant Professor / CMHC Counseling

The Counseling Program at the University of Missouri-St. Louis seeks applications for a full-time, tenure-track Assistant Professor position. The College of Education desires to enhance the diversity of its faculty and programs and encourages applications from underrepresented groups.

The position requires teaching, supervising practica/internships, conducting research, publishing, writing grants, participating in service activities, advising students, and having a strong commitment to cultural diversity and social justice. Practical experience as a counselor and licensure eligibility in Missouri are also preferred. The Counseling Program, housed in the College of Education, offers CACREP-accredited master's degrees in school counseling and clinical mental health counseling as well as a CACREP-accredited PhD program in counselor education.

Interested individuals who have questions may contact Dr. Susan Kashubeck-West (susankw@umsl.edu), Chair, Search Committee, Department of Education Sciences and Professional Programs, University of Missouri-St. Louis, One University Boulevard, St. Louis, MO 63121-4400, USA.

Qualifications:

Applicants must have an earned doctorate in counselor education or a related field from an accredited university (ABD will be given consideration). The ability to teach a broad spectrum of graduate courses in clinical mental health counseling, demonstrated potential for scholarly research and publication, and strong potential for securing outside grants to provide funding for research are preferred.

Salary:

Salary is competitive and commensurate with qualifications and experience. This is a tenure-track, full-time, 100% FTE, benefits eligible, nine-month academic year position with an anticipated start for the 2020-2021 academic year (beginning mid-August 2020).

Application:

Applicants MUST apply online at www.umsl.jobs and include a letter of application that addresses stated position requirements and preferences, current CV, and contact information including e-mail and telephone numbers of three professional references. All materials should be combined into a single PDF file and attached as a "resume" during the online application process. Only completed applications submitted online will be reviewed. Applications received by November 1, 2019 will receive priority; however, applications will be accepted until the position is filled.
