

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR, CLINICAL MENTAL HEALTH COUNSELING

The University of Texas at Tyler's growing CACREP-accredited Clinical Mental Health Counseling Program invites applications for a new tenure-track Assistant Professor of Clinical Mental Health Counseling position beginning August 2020 with the potential for early employment in Spring 2020. We are seeking a Counselor Educator with a strong sense of professional counselor identity to join our energetic and growing program. Members of our faculty will be at the Association for Counselor Education and Supervision (ACES) conference in Seattle and look forward to talking with potential interested applicants. Questions regarding this position can be sent to Erin West, Assistant Professor of Clinical Mental Health Counseling at UT Tyler (ewest@uttyler.edu).

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS:

Candidates should have a doctoral degree in Counselor Education from a CACREP-accredited program prior to August 2020. Additionally, candidates should have a strong professional counselor identity and provide evidence of strong research potential, service to the profession, interpersonal skills, and a commitment to excellence in teaching.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS: Preference will be given to those with eligibility for LPC licensure in Texas, clinical experience, and experience teaching core Clinical Mental Health Counseling courses. A record of active involvement in state, regional, and national counseling associations and productive scholarship which has the potential for external funding is also preferred.

RESPONSIBILITIES: Duties and responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- (1) maintain a 3-3 teaching load (2-2 for first year tenure-track faculty) of graduate-level counseling courses
- (2) develop a strong record of scholarship through research, professional presentations, and publications
- (3) provide service to the counseling profession at local, state, and/or national levels, and participate collaboratively in program, department, college, and university governance.

SALARY: The salary range is competitive, commensurate with qualifications and experience.

PERIOD OF EMPLOYMENT: Tenure-track positions will commence as early as August 2020 with the potential for early employment in Spring 2020.

REQUIRED APPLICATION DOCUMENTS: Candidates should electronically submit/upload the following documents as one PDF or Word Document to: https://zahrr-prd-candidate-ada.utshare.utsystem.edu/psc/ZahrPRDADA/EMPLOYEE/HRMS/c/HRS_HRAM_FL.HRS_CG_SEARCH_FL.GBL?Page=HRS_APP_SCHJOB_FL&Action=U

Please submit as one document:

- a cover letter addressing teaching and research interests, professional experience, and strengths relative to the qualifications and responsibilities cited above,
- current curriculum vitae,
- at least three original letters of recommendation,
- copies of recent teaching evaluations (if applicable),
- copies of recent scholarship, and
- copies of all academic transcripts to:

CLOSING DATE: Screening of applicants will begin October 23rd and continue until the position is filled.

ABOUT COUNSELING AT THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT TYLER: The University of Texas at Tyler offers a 60-credit CACREP-accredited Clinical Mental Health Counseling master's degree, which also meets LPC educational requirements for licensure in Texas. The Clinical Mental Health Counseling Program is housed in the Department of Psychology and Counseling and has an on-campus training clinic for counseling practicum student use. The core counseling faculty are all graduates of CACREP-Accredited counseling doctoral programs with a strong commitment to promoting counselor professional identity and improving mental health services in the region. Counseling faculty also specialize in a broad range of professional and research interests and enjoy regular involvement in state, regional, and national counseling associations. Over the past 2 years, our counseling faculty has been proud to have three of our master's-level counseling students earn competitive scholarships through NBCC. More information about current faculty professional and research interests can be found at <https://www.uttyler.edu/psychology/faculty/>

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY: UT Tyler is a component of The University of Texas System and is located in the beautiful wooded East Texas lake country on the I-20 corridor, about 100 miles east of Dallas and 200 miles north of Houston. The University is a public Level 5 doctoral institution that enrolls over 10,000 students, including nearly 4000 (40%) ethnic minority students. The department has a vibrant undergraduate program as well as graduate master's degree programs in Clinical Mental Health Counseling, Clinical Psychology, and School Counseling. The university and department have a strong commitment to achieving diversity among faculty and staff. We are particularly interested in receiving applications from members of underrepresented groups and strongly encourage them to apply for this position. For more information about the Psychology and Counseling Department visit our website at <http://www.uttyler.edu/psychology/>. The University of Texas at Tyler is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Applicants selected to fill the position must be able to present documentation of the right to work in the United States. This position is security-sensitive and subject to Texas Education Code Section 51.215, which authorizes the employer to obtain criminal history record information.