Faculty Position in Colorado Springs, CO

Open Rank Professor of Counselor Education and Supervision

Open Rank (assistant, associate, full professor) of Counselor Education and Supervision

The Department of Counseling and Human Services in the College of Education at the University of Colorado Colorado Springs invites applications for an open-rank (assistant, associate, or full professor) tenure-track faculty position in the CACREP-accredited Clinical Mental Health and School Counseling program. The workload for this position is teaching 5 courses per academic year (2/3 teaching load; in addition to counseling courses, undergraduate courses in human services are also available; summer teaching opportunities may also be available); maintaining an advising caseload of graduate and undergraduate students; supervising practicum and internship students; engaging in research; and providing service to support the department, college, and university.

The successful candidate will possess, and be able to demonstrate, a variety of inclusive pedagogical approaches that enhance student learning, including the use of current, applicable technology. The Department of Counseling and Human Services is committed to developing and supporting diversity and inclusion initiatives in and outside of the classroom, and encourages applicants from diverse backgrounds and underrepresented populations to apply.

Preference will be given to applicants with experience or certification in suicide prevention; supporting military-connected clients; multicultural counseling; at-risk youth; career development; assessment and evaluation; and/or rural mental health services. Military Veterans and members of other under-represented groups are strongly encouraged to apply.

Position to begin August 2020.

Minimum Requirements

- Earned doctorate in counselor education and supervision from a CACREP-accredited program. ABD will be considered if degree is conferred by August 18, 2020.

OR

- Doctorate in a closely related field (e.g., counseling psychology, marriage and family therapy) and to have been employed as a full-time faculty member in a counselor education program for at least a full academic year before July 1, 2013.
