

Assistant or Associate Professor, Tenure or Tenure-Track Professor of Human Development Counseling

Description:

The Department of Human Development Counseling (HDC) at the University of Illinois Springfield (UIS) is pleased to invite applicants for a tenure track faculty position with a start date of August 16, 2020. Accredited by CACREP, HDC offers concentrations in Marriage, Couple, and Family Counseling (MCFC); Clinical Mental Health Counseling (CMHC) and School Counseling. This is a full-time on-campus position and benefit-eligible tenure-track academic appointment. UIS tenure-system faculty are expected to be available and engaged in the campus community, with assigned professional responsibilities for teaching, scholarship, and service.

About UIS:

Located in the state capital, the University of Illinois Springfield is one of three members of the University of Illinois system. The University serves approximately 5,000 students in 22 graduate and 30 undergraduate programs. The academic curriculum offers students a strong liberal arts core, a wide range of professional programs, and close faculty interaction. Making the most of its location in the state capital, UIS is broadly engaged in public policy and service. Its diverse student body includes traditional, non-traditional, and international students. Twenty-five percent of majors are in 17 undergraduate and graduate online degree programs and the campus has received several national awards for its implementation of online learning. UIS faculty are committed teachers, active scholars, and professionals in service to society. The University emphasizes excellence in teaching, and faculty are also expected to provide a balance of scholarship and service activities to meet requirements for tenure and promotion. You are encouraged to visit the university web page at <http://www.uis.edu> and the department web page at <https://www.uis.edu/hdc>

Qualifications:

Required Qualifications Include:

- Doctoral Degree in Counselor Education from a CACREP-approved program by date of appointment.
- Professional Identity as a Counselor Educator as indicated by affiliations with relevant, active professional counseling associations (e.g., ACA, ACES, IAMFC).
- Strong record of relevant teaching experience and demonstrated scholarly accomplishments.
- Experience with CACREP accreditation.
- Demonstrated experience with program evaluation, including systematic assessment of student learning
- Licensure as an LPC or LCPC in the state of Illinois within two years of appointment.
- Experience counseling, teaching, and supervising from a systems perspective.

Preferred Qualifications Include:

- Marriage, Couple, Family Counseling specialization
- University-level teaching and supervision experience, in CACREP core and MCFC areas.
- Experience writing and procuring grants
- Leadership experience
- Seasoned Counselor Educator with a documented history of excellence in teaching; a well-established scholarly agenda; and service record

Responsibilities:

The University emphasizes teaching and expects ongoing scholarly and university service activities. A teaching load of three courses per semester is expected. The position will assume responsibility for co-coordinating within the Marriage, Couple, Family Counseling concentration and includes teaching core and specialization graduate-level courses such as:

- HDC 512 Prepracticum
- HDC 515 Multicultural Counseling
- HDC 545 Sexual Dysfunction and Family Violence
- HDC 546 Diagnosis and the DSM
- HDC 555 The Neurobiology of Trauma
- HDC 587 Professional Experience: Practicum
- HDC 590 Professional Experience: Internship

Additional duties will include providing ongoing academic and professional career advising to graduate students in the department of Human Development Counseling, participating in the graduate student recruitment and selection process, providing consultation, guidance, and supervision to students engaged in the comprehensive examination closure process, and sharing numerous department responsibilities.

Salary is commensurate with experience and qualifications, and benefits are competitive.

To Apply: Visit jobs.uis.edu, create or update your profile, complete the online application, and upload a letter of interest to include a statement of teaching philosophy and highlighting the above requirements, curriculum vitae, transcripts, three letters of recommendation, and evidence of teaching skill. Only those applicants who complete the online application and upload all required materials by the December 1, 2019 application deadline will be considered; incomplete applications will not be evaluated. To maintain the integrity and confidentiality of the search process, applicants are asked to upload their own materials.
