

University of Puget Sound Master of Education in Counseling Clinical Assistant Professor

Appointment: School of Education, full-time 5-Year Clinical Assistant Professor, Master of Education in Counseling Program; begins Fall 2020.

Responsibilities:

Teaching responsibilities include teaching graduate-level courses such as counseling internship practicum, family counseling, multicultural counseling, developmental counseling, and/or counseling theories. The faculty member normally will be expected to provide a minimum of one undergraduate course per year that serves the Psychology Department. Engage with faculty in collaborative work on program development and achievement of CACREP accreditation. Supervision responsibilities include placing, observing and coaching graduate students in local public schools and mental health agencies. Advising responsibilities include meeting with prospective students and mentoring graduate students. Other duties include participation in departmental and university governance and continuation of professional development in the faculty member's area of expertise.

Qualifications:

Doctorate in counselor education, preferably from a CACREP-accredited program OR doctoral degree in a related field with employment as full-time faculty member in a counselor education program for a minimum of one full academic year before July 1, 2013. Licensed or eligible to be licensed as a counselor in Washington State and/or certified as a school counselor. Counseling experience in school or mental health settings, knowledge of equity and inclusion informed theories and research, and an understanding of working with diverse populations. Research interests or professional experience in evidence-based, culturally responsive interventions preferred. Commitment to liberal arts education.

Application Deadline: Interested individuals are encouraged to submit application materials no later than December 1, 2019 to ensure consideration.

Apply: To review the full job announcement and apply online, please visit www.pugetsound.edu/employment.

About the School of Education (www.pugetsound.edu/education): The School of Education offers a Master of Education in Counseling program, a Master of Arts in Teaching program, and a minor in Education Studies. Students experience sustained clinical experiences in local public schools, mental health agencies, and/or community centers.

About Puget Sound:

The mission of the University of Puget Sound is to develop in its students the capacities for critical analysis, aesthetic appreciation, sound judgment, and apt expression that will sustain a lifetime of intellectual curiosity, active inquiry, and reasoned independence. Puget Sound is a 2,600-student, residential, national undergraduate liberal arts college in Tacoma, Washington, drawing students from virtually every state and several countries. 65% of students live on the 97 acre campus and the remainder typically live within a mile in the surrounding neighborhood. A low student-faculty ratio provides students with personal attention from faculty members who have a strong commitment to teaching. The university offers 1,200 courses in more than 50 areas of study, numerous experiential learning opportunities, 23 D-III varsity sports, and extensive co-curricular and leadership opportunities. Puget Sound graduates include Rhodes and Fulbright scholars, notables in the arts and culture, entrepreneurs and elected officials, and leaders in business and finance locally and throughout the world. In 2012, Puget Sound was named as one of 40 schools in Colleges that Change Lives.

About Tacoma, Washington:

The urban culture of Tacoma, known as the City of Destiny, is classic Pacific Northwest — a mix of low-key cafés, highbrow art museums, and laid-back music venues. Located in Tacoma's residential North End neighborhood, the Puget Sound campus offers easy access to some of the best shops, eateries, and coffeehouses in the city. Tacoma is positioned 35 miles south of Seattle and 30 miles north of Olympia, the state's capital. Add to that the magnetic pull of Mount Rainier, the ocean, the rain forests — and you know you are in a special place.

The University of Puget Sound is an equal opportunity employer.

Puget Sound is committed to an environment that welcomes and supports diversity. We seek diversity of identity, thought, perspective, and background in our students, faculty, and staff. To learn more please visit: <http://www.pugetsound.edu/about/diversity-at-puget-sound/>